

STRONG SUN POWWOW 2010

Tanglewood Park, Clemmons NC

July 9, 10 and 11, 2010

<http://nearriverdwellers.com/>

Open to the Public

This is an educational PowWow with dancing, crafts, food and fellowship for all ages. There will be special presentations of Native American history of the surrounding area. Robert Rambo will appear as "Atacullacula."

Friday: Gates open 10:00 am until 5:30 pm.

Grand Entry at 2:00 pm.

Concert: 6:30 pm in the Tanglewood Shell.

Featuring John Sarantos, Native American Flute Player, who has performed in Carnegie Hall and is known for his many CD's. Mr. Sarantos is also a respected educator, and has consented to conduct several flute classes during the PowWow weekend. Ken Watson, a very accomplished Native American flute player will also perform.

Saturday: Gates open 9:30 am until 7:30 pm.

Grand Entry at 10:30 am.

Sunday: Gates open 12:00 noon until 5:30 pm.

Tanglewood Gate fee: $2.00 per Vehicle. Admission to PowWow by Small Donation.
Children under 5, Free. Children 5 & over, $4.00 Adults, $6.00
Veterans 60 & over or currently serving, Free. Concert: $15.00, Children 6 & under-Free
Special Group Rates Available. Contact the Tribal office at (336) 816-7747.

MC: Rick Bird

Head Dancers: Mike & Jeannie Cranford

Head Veteran: Carlos Martin

Arena Director: Ken Cloudwalker

Host Drum: Bird Chopper

Guest Drum: Dry Creek Medicine

Vendors need to contact Tribal Office at (336) 816-7747. Spaces Limited

Please: No firearms, alcohol, drugs or gossip allowed. Shoes must be worn at all times.

Host Hotel: Super 8, 6204 Ramada Dr., Clemmons, NC, (336) 778-0931, ask for Trace',
Rooms $52.00 + tax per night. Or Village Inn, contact Lana at (336) 714-0172.